TEACHING FELLOWS PROGRAM

Application Requirements

Students, Minimum qualifications and applicable rules:

Applicants must:

- plan to pursue a career in education.
- work with a specific SRJC Faculty Mentor to submit a joint application to the Teaching Fellows program
- complete a minimum of 24 degree applicable units at SRJC by the end of the spring term in which they apply to the program.
- have a 3.0 or greater overall GPA (including any coursework transferred to SRJC). Applicants with an overall GPA below 3.0, but who have earned a 3.0 or higher for the past two consecutive academic terms, should contact the Scholarship Office to request an appeal for consideration by the Teaching Fellows Steering Committee.
- plan to enroll in and complete a minimum of 24 units at SRJC during the academic year in which they are Teaching Fellows, including at least 6 units during each of the Fall and Spring semesters. Applicants may appeal to have units earned during the summers before or after that academic year be counted as part of the 24 units.
- Fellows must maintain a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 during the year of Program participation.

Faculty Mentors, Requirements:

Faculty Mentors must be a contract faculty member or an associate faculty member sponsored by a contract faculty member. Should the associate faculty member be unable to complete the program, the sponsoring contract faculty member will serve as the Mentor.

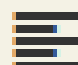

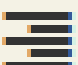

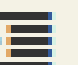

APPLICATION MATERIALS

Students will submit an application and an essay. The application sends an auto-generated request for a letter of recommendation to a faculty member identified by the student.

Begin by briefly describing your interest in teaching.

Student: What academic career do you want to pursue? Specify educational level and discipline area, if appropriate.
